We store Grapes, Currants, Goose-berries, Blackberries and Red Raspberries in the cellars for early Spring shipment. Strawberries and tip Raspberry plants are always fresh dug as wanted for shipping. Every box is carefully paper lined and no care will be spared to have the stock reach its destination in good condition.

No charge for packing packages or carting to depot, but after delivering to forwarding Company it is understood that we are released from any further responsibility for its safe arrival. We will, however, do everything in our power to trace and hurry the shipment through. BEFORE SENDING US COMPLAINT OF DELAY BE SURE THE STOCK HAS PLENTY OF TIME TO REACH YOU.

GUARANTEE

We have every reason to think our stock pure and true to name, but we also realize that errors creep in, in unexpected places sometimes, and we sell with the understanding that we are not responsible for any damage over and above the first cost of the plants, should there be an error. All sales are made subject to above conditions.

CREDIT

We extend credit to all responsible parties, payments due June the first and December the first. If we have never had dealing with you, always send Bank references if credit is desired, otherwise shipment will be delayed until we can look up your responsibility. Will write later.

Very truly,

E. E. BROWN

Detroit, Wash., Dec. 29, 1913.

WILLETT & WHEELOCK

North Collins, N. Y.

Dear Sirs:

The vines arrived in good shape and I am well pleased with the grade. They appear to be free from disease but I can't ship any of them until the inspector arrives, but we are expecting him daily.

Thanking you for your efforts in hurrying the grapes along, I am,

Very truly yours,

E. E. BROWN.

Detroit, Wash., Jan'y. 1st, 1914.

WILLETT & WHEELOCK

North Collins, N. Y.

Dear Sirs:

The district inspector has examined the vines and found them O. K. I am very well pleased with the stock.

Very truly yours,

E. E. BROWN.

The vines mentioned by Mr. Brown consisted of a shipment of forty thousand, shipped Nov. the eighth. November the twenty-eighth we received notice from the railroad that they were being held at Chicago for the prepayment of freight charges. (Why this was done we have not yet been able to learn for a certainty.) We immediately wired correction of way bill and handed our Agent the charges which were $249.60, wired a tracer and a few days later had a tracer started by letter, the result was they were only twenty four days from Chicago to Detroit, Washington. We attribute their good condition to care in packing. This same care we exercise if the shipment has only a short distance to travel, thereby insuring safe delivery even though delayed.
